

A Prayer for Love

Dear Father of Love,

I pray your steadfast love fall on me again today. I know you always love me, but sometimes I need reminded again of your love. Let me think of your love first thing in the morning and again as I fall asleep each night. Your love is pure, strong, wise, and full of peace. Let me lean into this love - knowing that I never could earn it - it is only freely given.

As I struggle to love those around me, give me patience and kindness. Let me remember how much you have loved me so I can love others. Help me to be aware of how I can comfort others and remind them of your love.

Give me wisdom and guidance.

Your love is fixed and firm in purpose and direction. It is unwavering and established forever. Your love, O Lord, holds out against sin, darkness, and death. Your love sustains me day by day without yielding. Eternally and always will your love continue to exist.

Amen.
