

Prayers for my

FRIEND

DEAR FATHER,

Let your will be done in my friend's life. It is hard to pray that, O sweet Father, but we know you are good. You love this friend so much more than I do. You know what is best, but Lord soften their heart to see your comfort in all of this. I pray as they go through this trial you will stay close to her. Draw her to a deeper relationship with you. Amen.

DEAR GOD,

as I watch my friend suffer, bring her comfort. Let her know the power of your Word and the truth of your promises. I pray you will encourage her heart, even just for today. I don't know how this will end, but I pray she will have the strength to meet each day with confidence. Bring her into a deeper relationship with you, the God of all comfort. Amen.

DEAR JESUS,

let her know you are close today. Speak to her in ways I never could. Give her the encouragement she needs just for today. Let her have what she needs for today. Remind her that there is manna from heaven and mercies new every single day. I pray she will know you deeper. Remind her of how you suffered on the cross. Her pain is not foreign to you. Help heal her hurt through all of this. Amen.

O FATHER,

wrap your arms around her during this time of hardship. May she know the comfort of your love. Remind her how deep and long you have loved her. I pray she will know the truth: She is loved by you. I pray for her heart. Let it not grow cold, but let her lean into you. Amen.

DEAR LORD,

many times I don't know what to say, but let me encourage her today with a text, an email, a call, or a note. I pray for her today as she goes about her day. Let her know she is loved, she has enough in you, and give her the strength to move through her day. Stay close to her and show yourself to her. Amen.
